INFORMATION NOTICE ON THE APPLICATION RIGHT OF DATA SUBJECTS

I. APPLICATION RIGHT OF DATA SUBJECTS

• Scope of the Application Right

In accordance with Article 11 of the Personal Data Protection Law No. 6698 (the “PDP Law”), you, as data subjects, have the right to apply to us and to make demand regarding the issues specified below:

- (1) To learn whether your personal data are processed or not,
- (2) If your personal data are processed, to request information in relation thereto,
- (3) To learn the purpose of processing your personal data and whether they are used in compliance with intended purpose,
- (4) To know the third parties to whom your personal data are transferred in Turkey or abroad,
- (5) In case your personal data are processed incompletely or incorrectly, to request the correction thereof and to request that any operation carried out in this context is reported to the third persons, to whom your personal data are transferred,
- (6) Despite being processed in compliance with the provisions of the PDP Law and other relevant laws, to request that your personal data shall be erased, destroyed or anonymized in the event that the reasons for the processing no longer exist, and that any operation carried out in this context is reported to the third persons, to whom your personal data are transferred,
- (7) To object to the occurrence of a result against you by analyzing the data processed solely through automated systems,
- (8) To claim compensation if you sustain damage due to unlawful processing of your personal data.

• Cases that Fall Outside the Scope of the Application Right

In accordance with Article 28 of the PDP Law, it is not possible for data subjects to assert their rights in the following matters due to the fact that the following situations are not covered by the PDP Law:

- (1) Processing of personal data for the purposes of national defense, national security, public security, public order, economic security, and - provided that it does not violate the privacy of the person or personal rights or constitute a crime - for artistic, historical, literary, or scientific purposes, or within the scope of freedom of expression.
- (2) Processing of personal data for purposes such as research, planning and statistics by anonymizing it with official statistics.
- (3) Processing of personal data within the scope of preventive, protective, and intelligence activities carried out by public institutions and organizations authorized by law to ensure national defense, national security, public security, public order or economic security.
- (4) Processing of personal data by judicial authorities or execution bodies in relation to investigation, prosecution, trial or execution proceedings.

According to Article 28/2 of the PDP Law, it is not possible for data subjects to assert their rights, excluding the right to claim compensation, in cases where processing personal data:

- (1) is necessary for the prevention of committing a crime or for crime investigation.
- (2) is carried out on the data which are made public by the data subject himself/herself.
- (3) is necessary for the performance of supervision or regulatory duties and disciplinary investigation and prosecution to be carried out by the assigned and authorized public institutions and organizations and by public professional organizations, in accordance with the power conferred on them by the law.
- (4) is necessary for protecting the economic and financial interests of the State related to budget, tax, and financial matters.

II. FINALIZATION OF APPLICATIONS

If data subjects submit their requests concerning their personal data to us in writing (signed by hand or e-signed can be substituted for a signature by hand) or by other methods determined by the Personal Data Protection Board in accordance with Article 13 of the PDP Law, the request shall be finalized as soon as possible and within thirty (30) days at the latest, depending on the nature of the request.

In order to ensure the security of the data, we may request information from the applicant in order to determine whether the applicant is the owner of the personal data that is subject to the request. In addition, in order to ensure that the request of the data subject is finalized in compliance with the request, questions about the request may be asked to the data subject.

In cases such as where the request of the data subject is likely to interfere with the rights and freedoms of other persons, where it requires disproportionate effort, and when the information is publicly available information, the request may be rejected by us by explaining its grounds.
